Dedication So

Whoever has been the guiding force or power affecting most the students comprising the graduating class of that year. This year, we, the student body, the editors, writers, copyists, typists, and the class of 46 as a whole who are the producers of this annual are an extremely lucky group in that our exit from high school will be heralded by peace not war.

The power of peace, its joys and the triumphs which it makes possible is now ours. To keep the peace and find our place in a land that can have good will and fellowship without prejudice and hate as poisons to undermine our structure is our goal. A good start, the proper foundation for realization of that goal is necessary to eventual success and happiness. We owe much to the work of Miss Wicklund, to her personal attention and the aid given unselfishly to each and all of her pupils. The success she attained is evident in the praise and heartfelt gratitude of the severest critics, the students themselves.

Affectionately called "Wicky" out of hearing, Miss Wicklund has provided in herself the most unforgetable and impressionable personabity of our high school career, her teaching and charm will remain with us. This annual is dedicated with sincere affection to Miss Louise Wicklund, our teacher, advisor, and friend.

Foreword

We offer this volume to the Monroe student body in the fervent hope that it captures the spirit of the past year and crystallizes into permanence vivid memories . . . that football game, the Senior Ball, classes, the Northwest Regional Basketball Championship, the Junior Prom . . . memories of Monroe High School of 1945-46.

This year has marked a new beginning in our future; it is the first year of peace. Through the sacrifices of former students who have served and who are serving their country, through our high school experiences, we have learned to understand the meaning and principles of Democracy. It is up to us to see that these principles are maintained and nurtured.

In this year of 1946, we have strived to make the "Hayu Saghalie" a more ambitious annual and have attempted to contribute something more substantial to school life. We hope that in the future this effort will be challenged and improved upon. We have tried to give you a panorama of high school life, which in years to come may serve as a pleasant stimulus to the recollection of some of our fullest and happiest days.

Superintendent's Message

The war is over and we can look forward with hope to a future of peace and good will among all people.

I believe the future of America will always be found in the hearts of its young people. The ideals that become a part of their lives will determine whether this nation will endure as a democracy.

As we teachers lose the Seniors with each graduating class, we can only hope we have given them strength to carry on, courage to stand for what is right, knowledge to live successfully with their fellow beings, and a faith in God and their fellow men.

If we have been able to do this in some small degree with the majority of them, we feel that the future is secure and that our work has been well done.

> H. L. SQUIBB, Superintendent.

DELOS WESLEY Assistant Superintendent

Your education is just started. The essentials for learning are taught in schools, but the application of these basic tools in solving problems of your everyday experiences becomes your education. Learning is a continuous process, and the residue of your experiences is your education.

If you leave this school with a fair measure of ability to apply the fundamentals learned in school to your later experiences, your education will continue. The school, then, will in a large part have fulfilled its obligation to you and to society.

DELOS WESLEY, Assistant Superintendent.

In the years to come, this annual will remind you of your friends and the experiences you had when you were a student in Monroe High School. Never again will you be able to repeat these experiences or meet all of these friends. Cherish this annual for it is the key to reliving a school year, and while you are, may my best wishes be with you.

E. A. DUYFF, Principal.

Student Council

THE STUDENT COUNCIL, the pupils' own representative body, has sufficed to maintain itself with excellence throughout a very busy and active school year.

Many of the activities of preceding years that were hindered by the war were once again brought to light this year with the advent of peace. Projects, excursions, and programs that throughout the war were merely the dreams of mid-day mediators have been started on the road to reality and achievement.

The item of greatest importance affecting the students has been the work done in promoting the lighting of our local athletic field. It is hoped that through the combined efforts of the council and the represented the projects can be completed by the termination of this school year.

Aside from that and the regular governing functions of the student council, two trips, one a bus tour which included visits to Stanwood's Twin Cities and Snohomish's "Panther" High School, and another to the Student Leaders' Conference in Everett, contributed in establishing better relations and in exchanging ideas among the various high schools of our locality.

∞ "Bearcat" Diary ∞

- Sept. 5-First day of school. (When the elite meet.)
- Sept. 14—Monroe ties us all in knots with the zero end of a 0-0 score with Oak Harbor.
- Sept. 19—"Where ya goin' in the three cornered apparel?" "Girls' Club Kid Party, Grandma!"
- Sept. 21—Flash! Monroe hands Issaquah the short end of a 24-0 score!
- Sept. 28—The Seniors give a "Sock Hop" to cheer up the team after losing a 6-0 game to Marysville. Eddie Salvadalena breaks leg.
- Oct. 12—Back on top again with a 13-6 victory over Arlington!
- Oct. 16—Emanuel Mansfield, Negro tenor, gives concert at Wagner Memorial Auditorium.
- Oct. 19—The movies hold no thrill after our 7-6 game with Edmonds! Who won? Guess!
- Oct. 23—"As You Like It" the way you like it—during school time.
- Oct. 24—Lettermen's program. A lot of tasty ham from a bunch of swell eggs.
- Oct. 26—Woops! This egg on our face isn't from breakfast!

  The score from the Snohomish-Monroe game was 32-6, in case you're even interested.
- Oct. 31—Sophomore "Sock Out." Dark glasses are in order after a gander at some of those foot coverings! (They can hardly be called socks!)
- Nov. 2—Back in "ka-nots" again with a 13-13 score with Mt. Si.
- Nov. 9—"Kiss the Boys Hello" (No! Not you, Myrt! The actors(?) from Everett!)
- Nov. 10—Revenge is sweet and methinks we'll be tasting it next year after the 13-7 loss Sultan handed us today.
- Nov. 11—Boys! Only 9 more shopping days 'till the Junior Prom!
- Nov. 14—Currie! Get out from behind that camera and let Mr. Morrison take those annual pictures. You make a better "birdie" anyway.
- Nov. 15—Entitled "F.F.A. Banquet" or "Mamma, Hand Me Down My Bromo-Seltzer!"
- Nov. 16—Now don't puff up and blow away but Monroe defeats North Kitsap (Tri-County Champs) with a score of 14-7!
- Nov. 20—Shhh! Tonight we find out who's taking whom (Miss Wicklund, please take note!) to the Big Deal—THE JUNIOR PROM!
- Nov. 22-Thanksgiving vacation! Bye all! Swwwiiisssshhh!
- Nov. 28—Those screams you're hearing are merely the Torch members having their informal initiation. The shrieks you'll be hearing tomorrow will be the results of the pot-luck dinner!
- Nov. 30—Watson! Bring my glass and let us repair to hunt for the scavengers the Girls' Club has advertised! Dance after, too!

- Dec. 5—Stripes are back in style now. At least for Torch members since they got their pins today at initiation.
- Dec. 6-P.-T. A. meeting at Park Place.
- Dec. 7—Nothing like starting the basketball season out right! "Monroe defeats Skykomish 45-13."
- Dec. 11—Whew! Talk about close shaves! We finally squeezed out a two-point winning margin over Twin Cities after a bitter struggle.
- Dec. 15—Only 10 more shopping days 'till the ax falls and Dad gets the bills! Another victory—this time over Granite Falls.
- Dec. 18—It's beginning to look like we're in a rut—but what a comfortable rut to be in! Snohomish ekes out 19 points while we grab off 42.
- Dec. 19—Christmas program under the direction of Miss Lee and Mr. Alden a big success.
- Dec. 20—All-High Christmas party with Santa and everything! And get a load of Queenie! Hubba! Hubba! Where's the mistletoe?
- Dec. 22-Jan. 2—Doggone it! Why'd they have to go and pick Christmas time and New Year's for vacation. Blub! Blub! Well anyway—Season's Greetings, 'Gate!
- Dec. 28—Well, looks like we finally got out of our rut. Darn it! We lose to Marysville, 29-30.
- Jan. 2-And a belated Happy New Year to you, too!
- Jan. 4—Here we are—back in the good old groove again! Lake Stevens falls short on a 41·19 score. Drill Team makes their debut and also gives a dance after the game.
- Jan. 8—Monroe wins, 38-17, over Sultan. Monotonous, isn't it?
- Jan. 12—A break in the monotony, Yowsah! Marysville wins, 38-20.
- Jan. 15—To get back to Snohomish—different time, different station, same results.
- Jan. 18.—Skykomish takes another trouncing from us.
- Jan. 19-Ditto Darrington!
- Jan. 23—The fleet-footed, flat-footed football fellows are fed by the future feminine food fanatics. In other words the Lettermen's Banquet.
- Jan. 24—Monroe Ag. team plays Marysville.
- Jan. 25-Monroe beats Granite Falls.
- Jan. 31—Advice from Captain Shenk, traveler, "When a crocodile looks over your shoulder, don't just use two fingers to gouge its eyes out—use all of 'em."
- Feb. 1—Lake Stevens has to learn their lesson all over again.
- Feb. 2—Student Leader Conference at Everett. Report—"Good food!"

CLASS of '46

LLOYD MEEDS President

BOB DYER Valedictorian

GLORIA PEDERSLIE

Led by Miss Wicklund, our freshman advisor, the class of '46 entered the beckoning doors of Monroe High School pouring pep into its student body. Taking top honors in our sophomore year, we were presented with the Scholarship Plaque. The class officers were: Calvin Davis, president; Jack Law, vice-president; Mary Ann Oman, secretary; Otto Tollefson, treasurer; Viola Peterson and Francis Morse, Board of oCntrol members.

Class officers the junior year were Calvin Davis, president; Jack Law, vice-president; Gloria Pederslie, secretary; Jim Keck, treasurer; Martin Hammerquist and Mary Ann Oman, Board of Control members. As juniors we took an active part in school activities, many of the clubs and organizations finding their leaders in this class. Our junior play, "You Can't Take It With You," under the direction of Mrs. Ogden, was a tremendous success. Ticket sales marked a new high. An Hawaiian theme was used for the Junior Banquet which highlighted an entertaining and memorable evening.

Lloyd Meeds and LeRoy Hester were the class presidents during our senior year; Jim Keck and Cliff Harvold were student body presidents, and Craig Currie and Mary Ann Oman were chosen by the faculty for the Wagner Awards. This class also has the distinction of having won the interclass basketball championship each consecutive year of its high school career. "Ramshackle Inn," a mystery farce directed by Mrs. Ogden, was the senior play.

A Victorian theme in a background of pink was used for the Senior Ball. The atmosphere was that of handlebar mustaches and bustles. The dancers glided over the floor to the musical strains of "Chuck" Hupperich's Orchestra.

During the course of the year Jim Keck joined the Navy V-5 program and Lloyd Meeds volunteered for the Navy. Miss Wicklund, popular and able adviser of the class of '46 through its entire high school life, will ever be affectionately remembered as "Wicky" by all members of her class.

Class of '47

Having won the annual Citizenship Plaque in their sophomore year, the class of '47 continued in its junior year with even more pep and enthusiasm. The main event at the beginning of the school term was the Junior Prom on November 21 which was the first in many years, and turned out to be a huge success.

On April 11 the class play, "Life Begins at Sixteen," was given under the direction of Mrs. Ogden. It was a success both financially and in the reaction of the pleased audience. The proceeds from this play were used in giving the Junior Banquet which was held on May 17.

Class officers for the year were Eddie Salvadalena, president; Calvin Boyes, vice-president; Dale Raben, secretary; Carolyn Schuler, treasurer; Board of Control, Barbara Raben and Clyde Speakes. Class advisers were Mrs. Ogden and Miss Kerr.

FIME ARTS

Fine Arts

Band

JOHN ALDEN
Instrumental Music Supervisor

The band this year has been directed by a new teacher, Mr. John Alden. Through his efforts during the year, he also has an orchestra well on the way. In addition to the appreciation we owe him for our fine band, we have also to thank him for starting the ball rolling on getting the band uniforms, which promise to be spectacular.

Looking forward to the future, Mr. Alden has developed the desire for music down in the grades, thus insuring Monroe of a future band and orchestra.

Glee Club

AILEEN LEE Vocal Music Supervisor

Miss Aileen Lee has under her direction the vocal department of the entire school system. From the first grade up through high school she is known for her wonderful work in stimulating interest in music.

Her first year here, Miss Lee entered a triple trio in the Western Washington Competition Festival and also in the Music Meet in Everett.

The Glee Club's part in the annual Spring Concert was successfully performed under Miss Lee's baton and full credit is given to her for a most successful year.

The senior class presented "RAMSHACKLE INN," a mystery farce by George Batson, directed by Mrs. Louise Ogden.

The junior class presented "LIFE BEGINS AT SIXTEEN," a comedy of youth by Hilda Manning, directed by Mrs. Louise Ogden.

All-High Talent

Our student body is especially fortunate in possessing members of unusual musical ability. Eunice Connelly, unusually talented on the violin, has not entertained as often as might be wished but is expected to be heard from more often in her senior year.

Verna Ramaley, a junior, and Ruth Marcear, a sophomore, have joined forces and have held regular "concerts," playing duets on the piano. These girls will both return next year.

Viola Peterson, graduating this year, will leave a vacant spot on the program where a song is to be sung. She has always been willing to entertain, and will undoubtedly be heard from again on the concert stages of the future.

Joan Heifort, also a junior and especially gifted musically, is able to play several instruments. She excells on the piano and usually accompanies our nightingale, Viola Peterson.

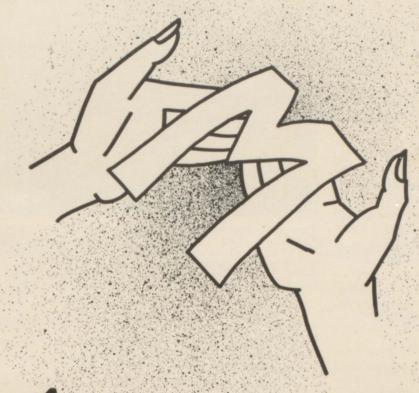

The Pep Band, composed entirely of Lettermen—LeRoy Hester, Jack Law, Craig Currie and Clyde Speakes, has played often and willingly at school or outside functions. The first three members of this group are graduating.

HITYE

Another year has rolled around, and we find the old Hi-Tye in operation faithfully reporting the news of the school day under the efficient leadership of Editors Frances Mead and Delores Carlson. Helen Hues has always stood ready to turn out the finished work on the mimeograph machine. Good artists and reporters have come and gone but we have always found others to complete the task.

Our paper has found its way to the editing rooms of schools far and near through the exchange stystem. From these exchange papers we have gained many ideas that have helped us to better our own paper, as well as keeping us in touch with the work and activities of other schools.

Librarians

THE LIBRARY is staffed by a group of twelve students of the school. eleven girls and one boy. They are under the supervision of Miss Florence Wilkie, librarian.

A few of the important duties involved in caring for the library are checking books in and out to students; classifying and labeling all magazines, books, encyclodepias and dictionaries; seeing that proper behavior is maintained by all using the material and that no books, either for reference or pleasure reading, are taken from the library unless they are checked out.

Students doing this for the first and second semester are: Anne Tucker, Barbara Raben, Dona Hansey, Maisie Peck, Anna Stucky, Marium Erickson, Cora Neiffer, Betty Webster, Ida Lou Jones, Naida Lindley, Dolores Carlson, and Robert Follis.

SENIOR DAY

May 7, a day that dawned clear and bright, found the seniors waving a fond "avoir" to teachers and classbooks for a delightful sojourn through Bellingham and North to the pleasant and beautiful resort of Birch Bay. Situated a short seven miles from the Canadian border in a picturesque setting basking in a warm spring sun and gently wafted by soft-tinged breezes, the bay and various available activities combined to make an enjoyably memorable day for all.

Boys' Club

The Boys' Club began the 1945-46 school year with Jack Law at the presiding helm assisted by Jim Keck, vice president; Eugene Drugge, secretary; Bob Dyer, treasurer; Calvin Davis, senior representative; Cal Boyes, junior representative; and Dick Nelson, sophomore representative.

On the occasion of Jim Keck's entry into the armed forces, Martin Hammerquist was elected vice president. Another replacement was required with Cal Davis' graduating at the half. LeRoy Hester was elected to fill his vacancy of senior representative.

The Boys' Club was very active this year with meetings every second and fourth Wednesdays. It was the first organization to back the lighting of the football field. The lighting committee, under Chairman Cliff Harvold, started the ball rolling and kept it going. Among other programs sponsored by the Boys' Club this year were Emanuel Mansfield, the Negro tenor, in a program at the Wagner Memorial Auditorium, and various other offerings that were presented to the Boys' Club during the meetings, besides a ladder ping-pong tournament.

Fire Squad

The Fire Squad's duties are many and varied. Theirs is a vital and important cog in the machinery of school management and they have performed their task well and seriously.

The members of the Fire Squad have charge of the building during fire drill, they see that all windows and doors are closed, that all other students have left the building before they themselves leave, and that all necessary precautions are taken to insure the safety of every member of the student body.

EUGENE DRUGGE RECEIVES AWARD

Eugene Drugge was the winner this year of a new trophy, the Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award, which is given annually to outstanding science students in secondary schools throughout the nation.

The purpose of the medal is to increase interest in science by providing a national honor for high scholarship in that field. Winners of the award are entitled to compete for a $1,500 scholarship to the University of Rochester.

Honor Society

THE HONOR SOCIETY consists of those students who have achieved superiority in scholarship and have contributed special services to the school. These students are to be recognized by their one-bar, two-bar, or gold-seal pins.

Under the point system, an "A" grade has the value of five points, a "B," three points, a "C," two points, a "D," no points, while an "X" grade subtracts two points.

Requirements for membership are: twenty-eight points by the end of the freshman year for a one-bar pin; fifty-eight points by the end of the sophomore year for a two-bar pin; ninety points by the end of the junior year for a gold-seal pin, and one hundred twenty-four points by the end of the senior year to retain the gold-seal.

These pins which symbolize exceptional ability give the wearers a sense of leadership in the school's extra-curricular activities and are an honor keenly felt by the students.

Hayu-Saghalie

WITH THE determination of producing a bigger and better annual predominantly in mind, the annual staff got off to an early start and did not let up until all of the work had been completed.

Their first efforts were to secure an engraved annual with a padded cover so they signed a contract with Western Engraving Co. and made arrangements to have the "Hayu Saghalie" printed at the Seattle Printing Company. The padded covers were ordered—they now had completed the preliminary steps of preparation.

The next step included the starting of the advertising campaign. This, under the leader-ship of Fran Mead, ably assisted by Dick Streissguth, surpassed all early expectations. Advertisers were kind and their generosity was needed to produce the annual of which the staff dreamed. At this same time the problem of pictures had to be solved; Mr. Morrison and Mr. Beail handled this department most capably.

The time came to start the final steps in organization. This included gathering the stories on the various clubs and classes as well as mounting the numerous pictures. By April first all material was in and the staff eagerly awaited the return of the finished books.

The annual staff wishes to thank Miss Dorothy Lamming particularly for the clever division pages she drew for the "Hayu-Saghalie." The annual's success is due to the combined effort and the fullest cooperation of the entire staff.

Monroe Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization of boys who are enrolled in high school vocational agriculture department. This organization trains boys to work together and to be democratic. It is education that produces the cooperation so necessary for successful farming. It is learning to do by doing.

All the boys in agriculture have home supervised projects. Our chapter owns a Ford tractor and all accessories. Sears Roebuck through a small project fund gave our chapter six purebred Chester White Gilts. Last year our chapter raised three acres of Alta Fescue grass seed, three acres of oats and one and a half acres of beans.

Among the judging teams which have participated in various contests this year, the Monroe Agriculture department placed third in Snohomish County Crops Contest at Lake Stevens, and fifth in "Seeds" at Bellingham. The members of the judging team were Stan Magnuson, Gilbert Strom, Victor Carlson, Jack Law, and Calvin Davis.

Calvin Davis was elected State Secretary of the F. F. A. Convention in Pullman last spring.

The officers of the Monroe Chapter of the F. F. A. are as follows:

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Lettermen's Club, under the leadership of "Chip" Chatterton, coach, was organized to promote the interest of athletics, develop a better spirit of sportsmanship and further the general welfare of our school. Its membership consists of boys who have made their varsity letter in one of the major sports.

The smoker given each year is sponsored by the Lettermen's Club and is part of the initiation for the boys entering the organization.

YELL LEADERS

Our three yell leaders are responsible for arousing much of the renewed spirit in evidence this year and helping to spur our teams on to victory. A special thanks should be attributed to them from the entire student body. Left to Right: Frances Mead, Marilyn Lind, Mickey

DRILL TEAM

After the absence of a drill team for the last four years a group of seventeen girls were organized under the direction of Miss Goodall. The team has made its appearance at a number of out-of-town and home games. One of these performances was made at the District Meet. "Chick" Thomas is to be complimented on her work as "Drill Leader."

A whirlwind of events seem to have occupied the "better half" of Monroe High School students this year. To acquaint the new sophomore girls with their big "sisters," a Kid Party was held in the gymnasium on September 19. Hardly had they outgrown their bibs and bonnets when they undertook the sponsorship of a scavenger hunt and dance on November 30. The Swing Band helped put this over with a bang.

When mistle-toe time came around, the girls gave a Christmas party for the student body and even "Santa" found time to drop in and distribute the gifts.

Before dawn even thought of cracking on the morning of February 5, a delegation of four girls was on its way to Bellingham to attend a Girls' Club Conference. As a result of listening to the woes and worries of other schools, the conclusion was reached that Monroe was "well off" that Monroe was "well off."

A "Pajamboree" was held in the gym on April 5 following a skating excursion to Skateland in Everett. During the year the Girls' Club also sponsored a basketball dance and exchanged programs with the Snohomish High School Girls' Club

The project of the year involved the completion of the service flag which has been on the agenda for the past two years. The Girls' Club is pleased to announce—"Mission accomplished!" Much credit should be given President Mary Ann Oman and her cabinet for their enthusiastic leadership and for initiating the new point system which is proving most popular.

Office Girls

Thirteen girls constituted the office force this year, with two working each of the six periods and one working before school.

Various duties are performed by these girls. The major duties include: the checking of attendance, answering the telephone, typing business letters, using the office machines, serving as receptionists and giving helpful information to any visitors.

Football

Starting the season with a full eleven man team of returning lettermen, the Bearcat gridiron squad showed themselves to be a tough, hardfighting aggregation that finished the season at the helm of three counties, tied with another and ended in a surprising third spot in their own county.

Of the nine games, the four which the team looks back on with the most pleasant memories are the ones with Edmonds, Mt. Si, Issaquah, and North Kitsap.

The Edmonds affair was a close 7-6 contest in which Monroe had been rated to lose. In a return encounter, Issaquah, who had left us at the bottom of a 20-7 score in the previous season found themselves defeated by an overwhelming 24-0 County Champs score.

Mt. Si, the King County Champs in their league,

Mt. Si, the King County Champs in their league, met stiff competition when the orange and black Bearcats held them to a 13-13 tie on their own field.

In the last game of the season, ten first string seniors played the best ball of the year, upsetting the Tri-

Two members made all-county first string this year: Jim Keck as guard and Cliff Harvold as end. Cal Boyes received second team honors as half back.

Ed Salvadalena, star Bearcat guard, suffered a broken knee in the Marysville encounter, constituting thereby the worst casualty and setback of the year.

Coach

A few words about the grand guy who's been the force behind the excellent Monroe teams, Coach "Chip" Chatterton. Handling football, basketball and track, acting as head coach and all assistants, he has manager to turn out, since his entrance here two years ago, top teams in all sports.

With fourteen years of coaching experience behind him, Coach or "Chip" as he is often called by friends—meaning all who know him—is well liked by the students and the faculty.

Determined more to get all boys in action rather than run up a high score, Coach's policy of using substitutes whenever possible has induced a more avid interest in sports on the part of students and townspeople.

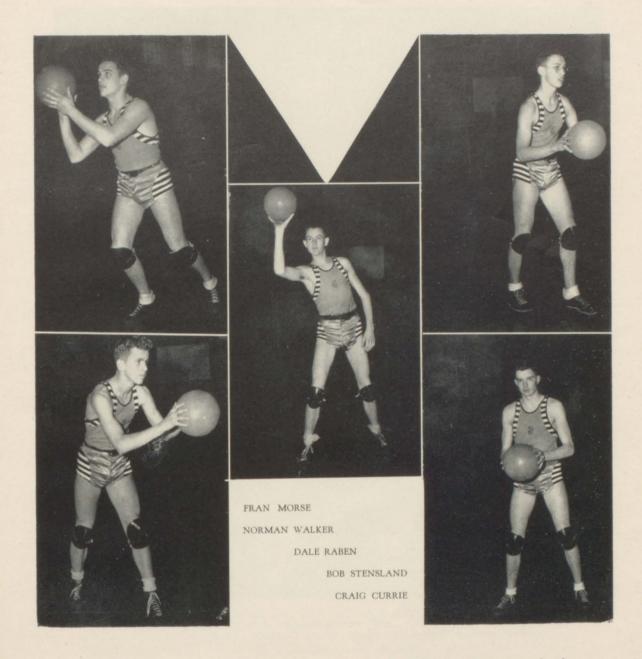

JACK LAW: Tall, lanky center, commanded the hot spot under the basket; honorary mention in all district team; team captain.

HAROLD RAMALEY: Steady, dependable forward; established new state record with 58 points in "B" league tournament.

LeROY HESTER: Three-year letterman; expert ball handler; fast, able player.

CAL BOYES: Top scorer; all district team member; fast and tricky; a veteran junior.

CHUCK WOOSLEY: Tall and big although just a sophomore, he proved himself to be a strong spot in the lineup; good shot and scrappy player.

DALE RABEN: Dead eye from the side; has shown he will be a strong contender for next year.

FRAN MORSE: Handicapped by height, he has proven to be a strong asset to the team.

CRAIG CURRIE: Playing either guard or forward, he has been a "good" boy to have around.

BOB STENSLAND: Only a junior, he will be back next year to help mold another strong basketball team.

NORMAN WALKER: A sophomore, he gained distinction by being on the second All-District Team; has two more years ahead of him.

Basketball

"Bearcat hoop squad wins championship!"

Taking first in County "B" League play the Champs won eleven out of twelve encounters, an enviable record for any team. Going on to the Northwest District Tournament at Stanwood, the home-town lads went through a week of tough competition undefeated.

In the opening game Monroe sent Skykomish, the fourth place entry from our county down in defeat, winning easily 47-27.

Sultan, our friendly rivals to the north, were the next maple court congregation to feel the fangs of the unbeatable Bearcats. The Turks, though putting on a better show than did previous contenders, couldn't match Monroe power and lost 37-32.

The last game of the tourney was a spectator's delight from beginning to end with the tall rangy Oak Harbor lads leading Monroe a merry chase. By the termination of the first quarter, the home club trailed at the end of a 10 to 3 score. Coming back before a wildly cheering stadium-packed crowd, the Bearcats gained on the Skagit County Champs narrowing the score margin 12-15. The rest of the game was a thrilling "one-in-a-thousand" contest with the home lads offsetting their earlier game deficit to take the lead, 23-22. In a fast last period, the now apparent victors moved on to win 32-29.

With two championships tucked safely away, the high-riding Bearcat squad journeyed to Cheney for the State "B" classic. Here at the Washington College of Education, the hosts of the Fourth State "B" League Tournament, the Monroe club placed seventh among sixteen top entries.

Arriving late after some travel delay, the Bearcats showed themselves a team to watch by downing Ritzville in the opening contest 44-26. However the next contest with Thorp, a small eastern Washington school of less than a twenty-boy attendance, was Monroe's Waterloo as that unbeatable team came back to win after having the trailing edge of a 19-7 score as the halftime result. In the third contest Monroe showed the same spark as had taken them through other contests and they won from the highly touted Port Townsend five 25-20.

The final game of the meet found the Bearcat congregation pitched against Castle Rock for fourth place honors. In a thrilling game that went into overtime, Monroe lost a hard fought contest, 45-43.

The Monroe '45-'46 basketball season was a grand success. The first and second teams, their coach, and their manager can well be proud of their achievements.

TRACK

A HISTORY of the preceding year, a prediction of the season yet to come, that is track's position in an annual that goes to press so early in the season.

Grinding old Father Time to a standstill, turning back the pages of time, we find the Monroe Bearcat thinclads showing up very well and making a favorable record for history's pages in last year's events.

The only trophy cup to be brought into Monroe's fold during that season's athletic activities came from the feats of the speedy, endurance-packed distance medley team at the Northwest District Relay Carnival, April 25, 1945.

Members comprising that team were in order: Speakes, 220 yard (dash); Keck, 440 yard (dash); Ramaley, 880 yard (half mile); Harvold, 1,320 yard (three quarter mile).

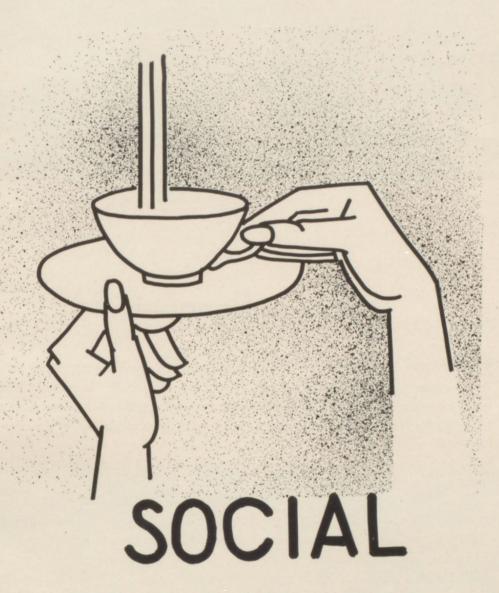

One of the hoped for goals of this season is to again win this event as the cup will then remain Monroe's for all time.

Besides this two members went to the district meet. Harold Ramaley, now a senior and still going strong, went to the district as a county representative in the javelin throw while Cliff Harvold went as a miler. From district, Harvold proceeded to the state meet for his second trip in two years and placed second in the mile, making the distance in 4:36. He's out again in this, his senior year, to make it three straight to the state.

Letter winners for the '45 season were: Cauffman, dashman, 100 and 220; Speakes, dashman, 880 relay team, medley relay; Keck, 440, broad jump, high jump, 880 relay team, medley relay; Hammerquist, low hurdles, high jump; Ramaley, 880, javelin, 880 relay, medley relay; Law, discus, shot; Stensland, shot, broad jump; Davis, pole vault; Harvold, mile, 880 relay, medley relay.

Junior Banquet

THE JUNIOR BANQUET was held on April 20, 1945, preceding the Senior Ball. An Hawaiian theme was carried out in the menu as well as in the decorations. The Hawaiian native murals that adorned the walls, the tropical and lush flowers vying in hues with the formal garb of the guests made a beautifully exotic setting for the colorful event.

Craig Currie and Frances Mead were toastmaster and toastmistress respectively and performed their duties in a smooth and clever manner.

Henry Hieb, the senior class president, spoke on behalf of his class, thanking the juniors for honor done through the presentation of the banquet in their behalf. The junior class president, Calvin Davis, presented Miss Kerr, the home economics teacher, the mothers who helped in preparation of the food and sophomore girls who served with gifts from the junior class in appreciation of their help.

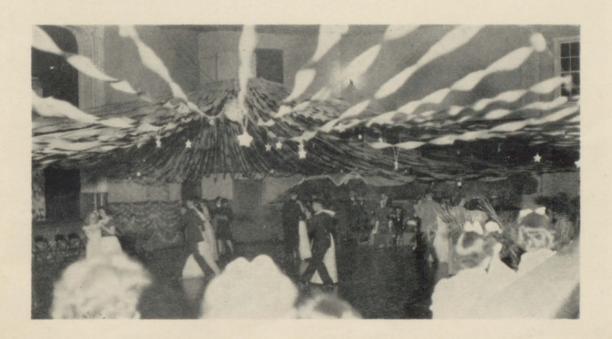

Honors go to Chairmen Mary Ann Oman and Bette Otteni, and to the entire junior class for their cooperation in making the affair such a successful and gala occasion.

Senior Ball

THE SENIOR BALL was held on the night of April 20,1945, in the senior high, which was tastefully decorated for one of the most popular affairs of the high school season. With Hawaii as the colorful theme, it was an enchanting experience for all who attended. The palm trees, leis of tropical flowers and grass huts presented a beautiful background for "Wally's Band" which furnished the music for a most pleasant evening.

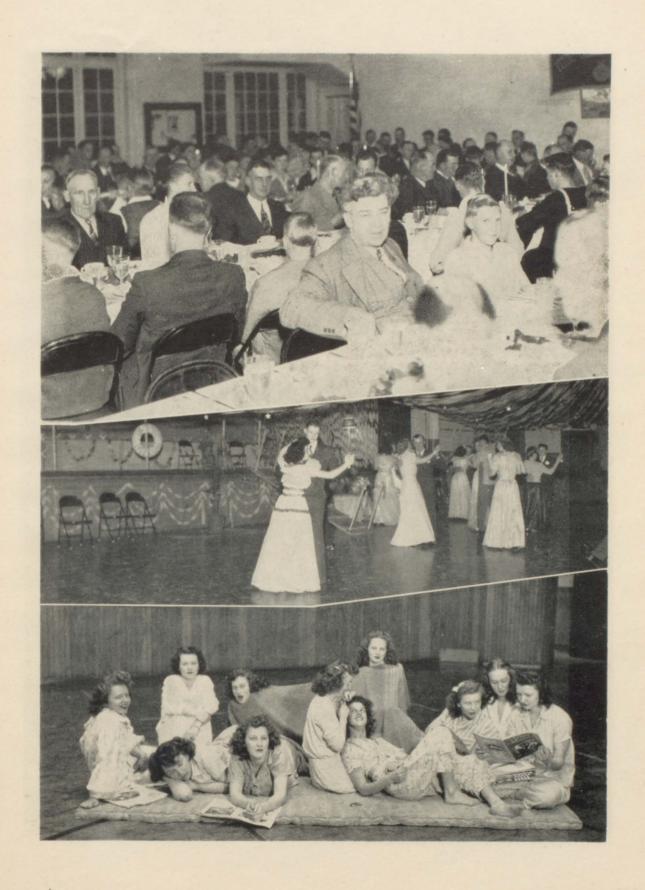

Intermission was spent aboard the excursion ship the S.S. Monroe, where dainty rerreshments were served in true nautical style.

The honors go to Ottilie Neiderlie, the chairman of the ball, and her committees for their achievements in decorating and entertaining.

Let's Dance

- JUNIOR PROM-

THE "STAR-DUST" JUNIOR PROM, presented on November 20, 1945, transposed the high school gymnasium into a beautiful winter garden with large fir trees glistening in the starlight. Stars glistened also on the students as they danced to the smooth music of Wally's Band.

Marilyn Lind and Craig Currie were chosen King and Queen for the evening.

Six members of the Junior class assisted the general co-chairmen, Carolyn Shuler and Clyde Speakes. They were: Clare Roetcisoender, Caryl Joyce, Anne Tucker, Joan Heifort, Calvin Boyes and Kermit Lund.

"They Whistle While They Work"

CLYDE PARKER, ace handy-man, jack-of-all-trades, and furnace connoisseur, seems to have the amazing faculty (maybe we should call it a "sixth sense") of knowing just where he is needed, what needs to be done and when. Always willing to help in any way possible, he is well-known and well-liked by students and faculty.

ART BROWN is in charge of the buses. Sometimes the out-of-town students may be guilty of wishing that he didn't keep the buses in such good repair, especially when there is a test first period; but all agree that they come in very handy when there is a party or football game to attend.

LOUIS BARBER performs well and faithfully his job of keeping the football field and the rest of the campus mowed and in order.

- Feb. 5-Monroe throws Sultan for a loss of two points.
- Feb. 8—Orchids to the Seniors. "Ramshackle Inn" pronounced a success by their own friends, even!
- Feb. 12—P. T. A. Remember when we were just kids and wondered what "P. T. A." meant? It took us the longest time to figure out that it meant: "A Tea Party." They thought they could fox us by spelling it backwards but we're not so dumb!
- Feb. 15—It couldn't last forever. We lose our first league game to Twin Cities, 29-30. If you've been wondering why it's so quiet around here today—A. T. went with the girls to attend the Girls' Conference at Bellingham.
- Feb. 16—Annual staff goes to Seattle this morning and joins Torch members to attend the Washington-Idaho game at the University. Hear—coming home—"John Jacob Jigle"—well, anyhow his last name's Smith.
- Feb. 18-22—Midst moans and groans we finally come out on top of the district tournament at Twin Cities. Think you can manage to croak out three cheers for the "Champs" after all that yelling?
- Feb. 22—Washington saves his country again with another vacation for us "juvenile delinquents!" Yippee, Skippy!
- March 6-9—Help! Acute manpower shortage! The men have gone off to capture seventh place in State "B" League Tournaments at Cheney.
- March 9—Girls' Glee Club attends music contest at Puyallup and comes home with flying colors!
- March 22—If you've noticed the treasurer running around with a calculating gleam in her eye it's only at the thought of the money for the lighting fund to come rolling in from the Lettermen's Smoker tonight.
- March 29—Rain, rain, go away and don't bother to come back! We had to cancel the track meet with Sultan.
- April 1-Lee Grabel, magician, makes April fools of all of
- April 5-Track meet-Monroe, Sultan, and Edmonds, at Monroe.

- April 11—"Life Begins at Sixteen" the Juniors tell us, but after seeing their play it looks like it remains to be proved. Time out while Mrs. Ogden has her threatened nervous breakdown!
- April 12—Track meet—Monroe, Sultan, and Snohomish at Monroe.
- April 12-22—"The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring, Tra-La." Yep—Sprig has cub and so has bacation. Has anybody god any Kleenex?
- April 26-Junior High Play.
- April 27-Relay Carnival at Sedro-Woolley.
- May 2—Hear ye! Hear ye! Step right up and get your tickets to the All-School Vaudeville tonight!
- May 3—"La de da oh boy what fun! Music Festival in Everett.
- May 4-County night track meet at Twin Cities.
- May 8-Quiet around here, isn't it? Senior Day, that is.
- May 10-Grade School Music Festival.
- May 13—The annual feud over who gets to use the tennis courts when is now well under way. Ouch? Who threw that tennis ball?
- May 17—Big Night! Junior Banquet (fish loaf and all) and Senior Ball!
- May 18-District track meet. Look! No finger nails!
- May 22-Junior-Senior High Music Festival.
- May 24—Honestly! The Boys' Club is giving a dance tonight!
- May 25-State track meet at Pullman. Look! No hands!
- June 2—Baccalaureate!
- June 4—Graduation! Congrats! Cheerio! Pip, pip! and all that sort of thing, old beans! We'll miss you; and what will Miss Wicklund and Coach do without their "Brats!"
